    Where it began,
                               I can't begin to knowing
C
                              G
    But then I know it's growing strong

Sweet Caroline,
                           G
Good times never seemed so good (so good, so good, so good)
I've been inclined,
                 to believe they never would.

   Look at the night,
                       and it don't seem so lonely.
C
    We filled it up with only two
                     F

    And when I hurt,
                       hurting runs off my shoulders.
