Intro: None

Tacet D      D7      G      Gm
Oh, give me a home where the buffalo roam,

                D                  E7          Em7 A7
Where the deer and the antelope play

                D          D7          G          Gm
Where seldom is heard a dis-couraging word

                D                  A7          D
And the skies are not cloudy all day

Chorus:

D      A7                  D                  Bm7          E7          A      A7
Home, home on the range, where the deer and the antelope play

                D          D7          G          Gm          D          A7
Where seldom is heard a dis-couraging word, and the skies are not cloudy

all day.

Verse 2:

                D          D7                  G          Gm
How often at night, when the heavens are bright

                D                  E7          Em7
with the light from the glittering stars.

A7          D                  D7                  G          Gm
Have I stood there amazed and asked as I gazed

                D                  A7          D
If their glory exceeds that of ours.

Chorus:

D      A7                  D                  Bm7          E7          A      A7
Home, home on the range, where the deer and the antelope play

                D          D7          G          Gm          D          A7
Where seldom is heard a dis-couraging word, and the skies are not cloudy

all day.
