

Silver Threads and Golden Needles

by Jack Rhodes and Dick Reynolds

Intro: C//// G//// D//// G/

 G C
I don't want your lonely mansion with a tear in every room
 G F D
All I want's the love you've promised beneath the halo'ed mo-on
 G C
But you think I should be happy with your money and your name
 G D G G/
And hide myself in sorrows while you play your cheatin' game

CHORUS:

 C G
Silver threads and golden needles cannot mend this heart of mine
 G/ (tacit) G F D
And I dare not drown my sorrows in the warm glow of your wi - ine
 G C
You can't buy my love with money 'cause I never was that kind
 G D G G/
Silver threads and golden needles cannot mend this heart of mine

(Lynne solo)

 G C
I grew up in faded gingham, where love's a sacred thing
 G F D
You grew up in silk & satin, where love's a passing game

(Dougal solo)

 G C
I know now you never loved me and I know I was a fool
 G D G G/
To think your pride would let you live by the Golden Rule

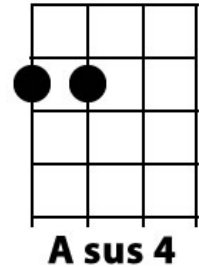

CHORUS:

 C G
Silver threads and golden needles cannot mend this heart of mine
 G/ (tacit) G F D
And I dare not drown my sorrows in the warm glow of your wi - ine
 G C
You can't buy my love with money 'cause I never was that kind
 G D G G (transition) E7/
Silver threads and golden needles cannot mend this heart of mine
