

ROSES ARE RED by Bobby Vinton (1962)

G

G

(VERSE 1):

G A long, long D7 time ago, on gradu.. G ation day,
You handed C me your book, D7 I signed this G way...

(CHORUS#1):

G7/ Roses are C red, my love, Violets are G blue. Sugar is C sweet, my love,

But D7 not as sweet as G you.

(VERSE 2):

G We dated D7 through high school, And when the G big day came.

I wrote C into your book, D7 Next to my G name...

(CHORUS#1):

G7/ Roses are C red, my love, Violets are G blue. Sugar is C sweet, my love,

But D7 not as sweet as G you.

(BRIDGE):

C Then I went D far a D7 way, And G you found someone G7 new.

C I read your D7 letter dear, And G I wrote C7 back to D7 you.

(CHORUS#2):

G7/ Roses are C red, my love, Violets are G blue, Em

Sugar is C sweet, my love, good D7 luck, may God bless G you.

(VERSE 3):

G Is that your D7 little girl? She looks a G lot like you.

Someday some C boy will write D7 In her book G too.

(CHORUS#1):

G7/ Roses are C red, my love, Violets are G blue. Sugar is C sweet, my love,

But D7 not as sweet as G you.
