

Glendale Train

artist:New Riders of the Purple Sage writer:John Dawson

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=I0k71pHqCu8>

Well, [D] somebody robbed the Glendale train
This [G] mornin' at half past [D] nine
[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train
And I [E7] swear, I ain't [A] lyin'
They [D] made clean off with sixteen gees
And left [G] two men lyin' [D] cold
[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train
And they [A] made off with the [D] gold

Now, [D] Charlie Jones was the engineer,
He had [G] twenty years on the [D] line
He [D] kissed his wife at the station gate
This [E7] morning at six thirty [A] five [D] Everything went fine till a half past nine
When [G] Charlie looked up and he [D] saw
There was [D] men on horses, men with guns,
And [A] no sign of the [D] law

And [D] somebody robbed the Glendale train
This [G] mornin' at half past [D] nine
[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train
And I [E7] swear, I ain't [A] lyin'
They [D] made clean off with sixteen gees
And left [G] two men lyin' [D] cold
[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train
And they [A] made off with the [D] gold

[D] Amos White was the baggage man and he [G] dearly loved his [D] job
The [D] company, they rewarded him,
With a [E7] golden watch and [A] fob Well, [D] Amos he was a markin' time when the [G] door blew off his [D] car
They [D] found Amos White in fifteen pieces
[A] Fifteen miles a-[D]part

And [D] somebody robbed the Glendale train
This [G] mornin' at half past [D] nine
[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train
And I [E7] swear, I ain't [A] lyin'
They [D] made clean off with sixteen gees
And left [G] two men lyin' [D] cold
[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train
And they [A] made off with the [D] gold
I said, [D] somebody robbed the Glendale train
And they [A] made off with the [D] gold

