It's nine o'clock on a Satur-day

C G A7 D
The regular crowd shuffles in

G D C G
There's an old man sitting next to me

C D G D
Making love to his tonic and gin

G D C G
He says, "Son, can you play me a memo-ry

C G A7 D
I'm not really sure how it goes

G D C G
But it's sad and it's sweet and I knew it com-plete

C D G G
When I wore a younger man's clothes."

Em A7
La, la-la, di-di da

Em A7 D C G D7
La-la di-di da, da dum

G D C G
Sing us a song, you're the piano man

C G A7 D
Sing us a song to-night

G D C G
We'll, we're all in the mood for a melo-dy

C D G D
And you've got us feeling all right

G D C G
Now John at the bar is a friend of mine
C G A7 D
He gets me my drinks for free
G D C G
And he's quick with a joke or to light up your smoke
C D G D
But there's someplace that he'd rather be
G D C G
He says "Bill, I be-lieve this is killing me."
C G A7 D
As the smile ran a-way from his face
G D C G C
"Well, I'm sure that I could be a movie star
C D G
If I could get out of this place."
Em A7 A7
Oh la, la-la, di-di da
Em A7 D C G D7
La-la di-di da, da dum
G D C G
Now Paul is a real estate nove-list
C G A7 D
Who never had time for a wife
G D C G
And he's talking with Davey who's still in the Navy
C D G D
And probably will be for life
G D C G
And the waitress is practicing poli-tics
C G A7 D
As the businessman slowly gets stoned
G D C G
Yes, they're sharing a drink they call loneli-ness
C D G D
But it's better than drinking a-lone
G D C
Sing us a song, you're the piano man

G D C G
'Cause he knows that it's me they've been coming to see

C D G D
To forget about life for a while

G D C G
And the piano, it sounds like a carni-val

C G A7 D
And the microphone smells like a beer

G D C G
And they sit at the bar and put bread in my jar

C D G
And say, "Man, what are you doing here?"

Em A7
